Guardianship

Permanent Plan	Chapter 13.36 RCW  Note: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• DCYF does not provide ongoing services or supervision.</li> <li>• If the guardian is eligible for R-GAP then a subsidy and services may be available.</li> <li>• Children and youth in guardianships are not considered foster children or youth.</li> <li>• Federal Timeline requires this permanency plan be achieved within 18 months of OPD</li> </ul>
Objective	Provides permanency for children or youth with an approved adult.  Guardianship is to be discussed with parents and caregivers as an alternative to termination of parental rights (TPR) and a adoption, when children or youth have been placed with the caregiver for more than six months.  Legal relationship ends on the youth's 18th birthday.
Legal Status	Parental rights are not required to be terminated.  Although the parent continues to be the legal parent, the guardian has full care, custody, and control of the child or youth.  The dependency is dismissed.  NOTE: If the family later decides to adopt the child, they will be responsible for legal fees and will not be eligible for adoption support.
Legal Custody &amp; Caregiver Responsibility After Permanent Plan Achieved	The legal guardian maintains physical and legal custody with full responsibility for care, custody, and the right to make decisions for the child or youth.   In rare circumstances modifications of the guardianship order may occur.   Guardians can choose whether or not to provide an inheritance to a child or youth; it is not a right for the child or youth.  For eligible relatives, R-GAP subsidy can transfer to a successor guardian if named in the R-GAP agreement and the legal guardian becomes incapacitated or dies.
Birth / Adoptive Parent Rights / Responsibility	Guardianship orders must include visits. Visits are the responsibility of the guardian.  The court may continue to order that the birth parent is still responsible for child support.  In rare circumstances modifications of the guardianship order may occur.
Financial Services Available / Monthly Subsidy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A guardianship subsidized through Relative Guardianship Assistance Program (RGAP) may be available to licensed relatives that meet the requirements, per the R-GAP policy, that includes, but is not limited to the:</li> <li>• Guardian being foster care licensed for at least 6 months and having placement of the child or youth for 6 months post licensing prior to establishing the guardianship.</li> <li>• R-GAP agreement must be signed prior to establishing the guardianship.</li> <li>• The program also reimburses up to $2000 to guardians for up-front legal fees.</li> </ul>
